really true example of doing that. So thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. (Visitors introduced.) Senator Chambers, on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, you all going to play hardball with me, so I'm going to play hardball also. I'm going to take the budget hostage and I'm going to see how long I can keep us here. And I want to see if, in the present form, you're willing to invoke cloture, and if you are, then you'll shut me up. I think you got...how many votes did you get to adopt it, 30-something? And if you think that I am bluffing, I'm going to show you that I'm not. Now the Speaker has told us we're going to stay here nights. I'm going to make sure that we do unless, as I say, you cloture me. And if you cloture me, I get some other things my way. Because you're going to have to send something over to the Governor that does not cut the mustard, that he can red pencil all he wants to. So this is one time that Herod and Pilate are being brought together by something they both do not like. Now Herod was an Arab. A lot of people don't know that. He built a temple. Pilate was a Roman. Now I don't know what Senator (sic) Johannis derivation is. I'd like to ask Senator Tyson a question, because he...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Tyson, would you...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...knows these things.

SENATOR CUDABACK: ...would you yield to a question?

SENATOR TYSON: Be happy to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Tyson, the name Johannis derives from which country?

SENATOR TYSON: German, Germany.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. And the name Chambers? Probably from...
